

Subject: Fwd: Rob Burgess: What Are Your Questions For The Marion County Municipal Election Candidates?

From: Rob Burgess <rburgess@nuvo.net>

To: Rob Burgess <robertandertonburgess@gmail.com>

Date Sent: Wed, 17 Apr 2019 14:31:37 -0400

Date Received:

---

----- Forwarded message -----

From: NUVO <newsletter@nuvo.net>

Date: Wed, Apr 3, 2019 at 4:10 PM

Subject: Rob Burgess: What Are Your Questions For The Marion County Municipal Election Candidates?

To: <rburgess@nuvo.net>

This Week In News: Wednesday, April 3, 2019

Rob Burgess Updated 13 min ago

Hello,

It's Wednesday and you know what that means! That's right, it's Rob Burgess, NUVO News Editor, back with you once again.

I've started receiving my orders from the NUVO store yesterday, and so far everything looks great. Check out the awesome House of Burgess hat I got.

If you want to support our work, and grab some fire gear, head over to the NUVO store. We're adding new products all the time. (And not all of them are House of Burgess, either!)

Did you know there is a municipal election in Marion County this year? Well, there is! In addition to several other offices, all 25 City-County Council seats are up for election, as is the Indianapolis mayor's office. First off, you should definitely make sure you're registered to vote. The primary election is Tuesday, May 7, and the deadline register is Monday, April 8. After that, the general election is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 5, and the deadline to register for that is Monday, Oct. 7. According to Indiana Secretary of State Connie Lawson, you can register to vote online by using the Indiana Voters app or by visiting IndianaVoters.com. You can also submit an application to register in person at their local county clerk's office. In order to be eligible to register to vote, you must: be a citizen of the United States; be at least 18 years old on the day of the next general, municipal, or special election; have lived in your precinct for at least 30 days before the next general, municipal, or special election (except for certain military voters); and not currently be imprisoned after being convicted of a crime. Voters with questions can call the Hoosier Voter Hotline at 866-IN-1-VOTE.

If you'll remember from the 2018 midterm elections, we compiled an entire Voters Guide section of our website. We want to do something similar for this year's election, but even better. Last time, we put a call out to readers to submit questions they would like the candidates to answer. I then sifted through the responses we received and forwarded them to what I thought were the most appropriate races. In the end we received a fantastic response from both readers and candidates as we were able to cover 30 federal, state, and county races. This time, I want the readers to not only tell me what they want to know from the candidates, but, also, which of the questions we receive should be the top priority.

Today, I attended the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana's 7th Annual Fair Housing Conference, "Fair Housing: The Bridge to Equitable Communities," at the Marriott East, as a part of my reporting on migration trends in Indianapolis, which I'm wrapping up now. Look for that in the next few days.

I hope you're having a great week. Get out and enjoy the spring weather if you can!

Thanks,

ROB BURGESS
News Editor // NUVO.net

WE NEED YOUR VOICE

NUVO

Join the movement for $5

ALL MEMBERSHIPS ARE TAX DEDUCTIBLE

Poor People's Campaign Calls For 'Moral Revival' at Statehouse

On Monday, March 25, the Indiana Poor People's Campaign, one of 35 state campaigns across the nation, was gathered at the Statehouse to demand “a massive overhaul of voting rights, welfare and work requirements, living wages, health care, access to clean water, housing, ecological devastation and an end to endless war, to lift up the 140 million Americans currently living in poverty.” Read more

Canon: Solving Hunger in the Land of Plenty

How, when there is so much to go around, can there be so much want? Regular citizens are answering this question by picking up where apathetic legislators have left off.

NUVO, 3951 N. Meridian St., Suite 200, Indianapolis, IN 46208

SafeUnsubscribe™ rburgess@nuvo.net

Update Profile | About our service provider

Sent by newsletter@nuvo.net

--

Rob Burgess
News Editor, NUVO
NUVO.net
Phone: 317-808-4614
Twitter: @robaburg

Subject: Rob Burgess: What Are Your Questions For The Marion County Municipal Election Candidates?

From: NUVO <newsletter@nuvo.net>

To: editors@nuvo.net

Date Sent: Wed, 3 Apr 2019 16:10:15 -0400 (EDT)

Date Received: Wed, 03 Apr 2019 13:10:28 -0700 (PDT)

This Week In News: Wednesday, April 3, 2019

Rob Burgess Updated 13 min ago

Hello,

It's Wednesday and you know what that means! That's right, it's Rob Burgess, NUVO News Editor, back with you once again.

I've started receiving my orders from the NUVO store yesterday, and so far everything looks great. Check out the awesome House of Burgess hat I got.

If you want to support our work, and grab some fire gear, head over to the NUVO store. We're adding new products all the time. (And not all of them are House of Burgess, either!)

Did you know there is a municipal election in Marion County this year? Well, there is! In addition to several other offices, all 25 City-County Council seats are up for election, as is the Indianapolis mayor's office. First off, you should definitely make sure you're registered to vote. The primary election is Tuesday, May 7, and the deadline register is Monday, April 8. After that, the general election is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 5, and the deadline to register for that is Monday, Oct. 7. According to Indiana Secretary of State Connie Lawson, you can register to vote online by using the Indiana Voters app or by visiting IndianaVoters.com. You can also submit an application to register in person at their local county clerk's office. In order to be eligible to register to vote, you must: be a citizen of the United States; be at least 18 years old on the day of the next general, municipal, or special election; have lived in your precinct for at least 30 days before the next general, municipal, or special election (except for certain military voters); and not currently be imprisoned after being convicted of a crime. Voters with questions can call the Hoosier Voter Hotline at 866-IN-1-VOTE.

If you'll remember from the 2018 midterm elections, we compiled an entire Voters Guide section of our website. We want to do something similar for this year's election, but even better. Last time, we put a call out to readers to submit questions they would like the candidates to answer. I then sifted through the responses we received and forwarded them to what I thought were the most appropriate races. In the end we received a fantastic response from both readers and candidates as we were able to cover 30 federal, state, and county races. This time, I want the readers to not only tell me what they want to know from the candidates, but, also, which of the questions we receive should be the top priority.

Today, I attended the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana's 7th Annual Fair Housing Conference, "Fair Housing: The Bridge to Equitable Communities," at the Marriott East, as a part of my reporting on migration trends in Indianapolis, which I'm wrapping up now. Look for that in the next few days.

I hope you're having a great week. Get out and enjoy the spring weather if you can!

Thanks,

ROB BURGESS
News Editor // NUVO.net

Poor People's Campaign Calls For 'Moral Revival' at Statehouse

On Monday, March 25, the Indiana Poor People's Campaign, one of 35 state campaigns across the nation, was gathered at the Statehouse to demand “a massive overhaul of voting rights, welfare and work requirements, living wages, health care, access to clean water, housing, ecological devastation and an end to endless war, to lift up the 140 million Americans currently living in poverty.” Read more

Canon: Solving Hunger in the Land of Plenty

How, when there is so much to go around, can there be so much want? Regular citizens are answering this question by picking up where apathetic legislators have left off.

NUVO, 3951 N. Meridian St., Suite 200, Indianapolis, IN 46208

SafeUnsubscribe™ editors@nuvo.net

Update Profile | About our service provider

Sent by newsletter@nuvo.net

Subject: Rob Burgess: What Are Your Questions For The Marion County Municipal Election Candidates?

From: NUVO <newsletter@nuvo.net>

To: rburgess@nuvo.net

Date Sent: Wed, 3 Apr 2019 16:10:16 -0400 (EDT)

Date Received: Wed, 03 Apr 2019 13:10:17 -0700 (PDT)

This Week In News: Wednesday, April 3, 2019

Rob Burgess Updated 13 min ago

Hello,

It's Wednesday and you know what that means! That's right, it's Rob Burgess, NUVO News Editor, back with you once again.

I've started receiving my orders from the NUVO store yesterday, and so far everything looks great. Check out the awesome House of Burgess hat I got.

If you want to support our work, and grab some fire gear, head over to the NUVO store. We're adding new products all the time. (And not all of them are House of Burgess, either!)

Did you know there is a municipal election in Marion County this year? Well, there is! In addition to several other offices, all 25 City-County Council seats are up for election, as is the Indianapolis mayor's office. First off, you should definitely make sure you're registered to vote. The primary election is Tuesday, May 7, and the deadline register is Monday, April 8. After that, the general election is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 5, and the deadline to register for that is Monday, Oct. 7. According to Indiana Secretary of State Connie Lawson, you can register to vote online by using the Indiana Voters app or by visiting IndianaVoters.com. You can also submit an application to register in person at their local county clerk's office. In order to be eligible to register to vote, you must: be a citizen of the United States; be at least 18 years old on the day of the next general, municipal, or special election; have lived in your precinct for at least 30 days before the next general, municipal, or special election (except for certain military voters); and not currently be imprisoned after being convicted of a crime. Voters with questions can call the Hoosier Voter Hotline at 866-IN-1-VOTE.

If you'll remember from the 2018 midterm elections, we compiled an entire Voters Guide section of our website. We want to do something similar for this year's election, but even better. Last time, we put a call out to readers to submit questions they would like the candidates to answer. I then sifted through the responses we received and forwarded them to what I thought were the most appropriate races. In the end we received a fantastic response from both readers and candidates as we were able to cover 30 federal, state, and county races. This time, I want the readers to not only tell me what they want to know from the candidates, but, also, which of the questions we receive should be the top priority.

Today, I attended the Fair Housing Center of Central Indiana's 7th Annual Fair Housing Conference, "Fair Housing: The Bridge to Equitable Communities," at the Marriott East, as a part of my reporting on migration trends in Indianapolis, which I'm wrapping up now. Look for that in the next few days.

I hope you're having a great week. Get out and enjoy the spring weather if you can!

Thanks,

ROB BURGESS
News Editor // NUVO.net

Poor People's Campaign Calls For 'Moral Revival' at Statehouse

On Monday, March 25, the Indiana Poor People's Campaign, one of 35 state campaigns across the nation, was gathered at the Statehouse to demand “a massive overhaul of voting rights, welfare and work requirements, living wages, health care, access to clean water, housing, ecological devastation and an end to endless war, to lift up the 140 million Americans currently living in poverty.” Read more

Canon: Solving Hunger in the Land of Plenty

How, when there is so much to go around, can there be so much want? Regular citizens are answering this question by picking up where apathetic legislators have left off.

NUVO, 3951 N. Meridian St., Suite 200, Indianapolis, IN 46208

SafeUnsubscribe™ rburgess@nuvo.net

Update Profile | About our service provider

Sent by newsletter@nuvo.net